

HEALING & RENEWAL

By Sue Watts

Artist Statement

Whether Covid, personal health, or any other difficulties of 2020, we all have struggled so much this past year. It looks like, with a little bit of luck, we can put this behind us, or at least no longer in front of us!

And, what is more healing and renewing than springtime, the end of the cold, dark of winter and the beginning of sunshine, warmer temps, new life and green?

Flowers and birds, baby, that's all I need!

What about you?
