STUDENT ARTIST OF THE MONTH

The November Student Artist of the Month is TATEM HERDINA from Decatur Christian High School. Tatem is a senior & 18 years old. She has lived in Forsyth since she was 13. She moved here from Minnesota.

The title of this painting by Tatem is "The Girl in My Memory". Her teacher, Joel Ruppert, shares this: "When creating this acrylic painting for school this past winter, Tatem had just finished reading "The Invisible Life of Addie LaRue" by V.E. Schwab. There are many references and hidden notes from the book in the painting itself; from the ring, the watch, the trees, her jacket, her faceless appearance in the painting, and most importantly the freckles that connect into a constellation on her face. One of the largest parts of the book is that Addie LaRue can not be remembered but leaves her mark on all kinds of artists, they can remember the freckles, but never the face."

"Tatem's favorite art mediums are digital art, charcoal, and acrylic painting. She has been involved with Art from a very young age. Tatem also grew up learning multiple instruments for another form of art and expression, and she also writes. Her Future plans are to attend SIU Carbondale Fall 2022 with a major in English with a specification in Creative Writing. Tatem would like to write books and become a published author someday."

ARTS IN EDUCATION – The Young Artist Showcase

This is Gallery 510's longest running program. The Gallery hosts an art show for students in fifth through eighth grade in January every year. The first show took place at 510 West Decatur Street, the first home of the Gallery. After the gallery moved downtown, the Young Artist Showcase soon started at the Madden Art Center's Anne Lloyd Gallery. This is a wonderful opportunity for these young artists to show their talent in this beautiful facility.

If you know a student in 5th – 8th grade, encourage them to enter this show. Entries may be brought to Gallery 510 at 160 East Main Street in November. The deadline for submissions is November 19 at 5:00 pm. All mediums are accepted. Although the artwork may be submitted framed or matted, it will not be considered in the judging. About 100 pieces will be selected for exhibit. Awards will be presented in both 5th/6th grades and 7th/8th grades with two Best of Show & place ribbons for each. The exhibit will be in January 2022. The entries will be juried and judged. Then, Gallery 510 will prepare the work for hanging.

The image to the right is a recent oil painting by Sharon Zimmerman. It was recently painted in her Arizona studio from photographs. She's looking forward to cooler weather so she can paint en plein air.

Above is an oil painting done en plein air by Anthony Collins. The painting is on his easel with the view he was painting in the background. This was painted from behind the University President's home at the University of Illinois in Champaign. Anthony will be attending a 10-day oil painting workshop in October by Lori Putnam in Nashville, Tennessee.

"Stepping Onto Nature's Stage" (above) is a pastel painting by Tracey Maras. This painting was featured in a blog for Unison Colour Pastels (www.unisoncolour.com). The blog was published early October and is titled "Combating Cookie Cutter Conifers" and provides instruction on how to approach painting evergreen trees.

The image above is titled "The Mighty Oak". This is an oil painting by Barbara Dove. It's 36" x 48" presented gallery wrapped on 1 ½" deep stretcher bars.
